The church wakes up to an amazing message this morning. Look around and see who has been called. Listen to the voices of those who proclaim Jesus is Lord. You'll find no race of people left out; you'll find no language on earth unfit to proclaim the glory of God. We call Pentecost Sunday the "birthday of the church." In many ways, the church is still being born. Only when we know the peace Jesus offered in today's Gospel will we really know the fullness of the Holy Spirit. St. Paul assures us in today's second reading that "all of us have been given to drink of the one Spirit." When we look around us in the church we should see everyone. But we don't. Not yet. What is holding us back from fully embracing the one Body of Christ? When will we see our differences as manifestations of the same Holy Spirit?

MISSIONARIES OF CHARITY

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the First Profession of Vows of five or their novices. His Excellency, Most Reverend Salvatore J. Cordileone, Archbishop of San Francisco will be the main celebrant. On Saturday, May 21st at 10:00am in Mission Dolores Basilica. They would be very happy if each one of you could join them in their most joyous celebration. Please keep the Sisters in your prayers. Congratulations!

PENTECOST’S GIFTS AND FRUITS

Pentecost, in the time of the Apostles, was a Jewish day of celebrating the wheat harvest (Shavuot) and commemorating God giving the Ten Commandments at Mount Sinai fifty days after the Exodus. And so the frightened little band of “Followers of the Way as they would become known, were gathered, or maybe hiding, in the Room where they had eaten the Last Supper with Jesus. Suddenly they experienced a life changing event. A “strong, driving wind and tongues as of fire” describe the presence of the Holy Spirit. The wind would signify a new action of God and the fire would symbolize the presence of God. They went forth and took the message of Jesus to the “the ends of the earth”. We, nearly 2,000 years later are the lucky recipients of that wind and fire. We carry within us a glowing flame and the “rush” or “breath of God” When we allow the Seven Gifts of The Spirit – Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Courage, Knowledge, Reverence, and Wonder and Awe of God to become a beacon of hope for all whom we encounter. How do we do that? With the help and the grace of God dwelling within us. When the Gifts of the Spirit are nurtured and practiced within us, we will bear the Fruits of the Spirit without. Gentleness, Faithfulness, Self-Control, Meekness, Patience, Peace, Love, Joy, Kindness, Faith, Goodness, and Temperance will grow in us.

La Iglesia se despierta esta mariana con un asombroso mensaje. Mira a tu alrededor a ver quien ha sido llamado. Escucha las voces de los que proclaman que Jesús es el Señor. Encontraras que ningún pueblo ni raza ha sido excluido; ningún idioma del mundo es incapaz de proclamar la gloria de Dios. Decimos que el Domingo de Pentecostés es el "cumpleaños de la Iglesia". En diversas maneras, la Iglesia todavía está naciendo. Solo cuando todos conozcan la paz que Jesús ofrece en el Evangelio de hoy es que de veras conoceremos la plenitud del Espíritu Santo. San Pablo nos asegura en la segunda lectura de hoy que "a todos se nos ha dado a beber del mismo Espíritu". Cuando pasamos nuestra mirada por la Iglesia, deberíamos de ver a toda. Pero no es así. Todavía no. ¿qué barrera nos impide abrazarnos en un solo Cuerpo de Cristo? ¿Cuándo vamos a reconocer que nuestras diferencias son manifestaciones de un mismo Espíritu Santo?
