Throughout this Easter season the readings have drawn us into the experience of the early church. We have tasted the excitement and zeal of the first Christians. Now, with them, we listen to the words of Saint Peter, who reminds us that when people notice that we are people of hope, we should be ready to explain why. This challenges us. Do others even notice that we are people of hope? In a world often marked by cynicism and hopelessness, do we stand out as people who offer hope and reassurance to others? In today's Gospel Jesus promises that when he leaves the earth he will not leave us orphaned. Today he promises to send his Advocate, the Spirit of truth who will be with us always. Let us acknowledge the presence of the Holy Spirit and ask the Spirit to make us people of hope.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The custom of genuflection is not found everywhere in the Catholic Church. In fact, it is a bit of breach of etiquette to genuflect in most Eastern Catholic Churches. If you're visiting an Eastern Catholic or an Orthodox church, the "when in Rome" rule should be adopted. Watch what the home team is doing! Usually, Eastern Catholics and Orthodox reserve a small portion of the Eucharistic bread for the dying in a cupboard or Eucharistic dove, but it is not a center of attention or devotion. The rule is to make a profound bow, called a "metasis," toward the altar-bowing deeply while making the sign of the cross. East and West split years before we Westerners began to reserve the Blessed Sacrament prominently in our churches. Thus, the East never changed the original custom of bowing toward the altar. Increasingly, as tabernacles became more widespread in the West and moved into prominent placement within churches, we replaced the bow toward the altar with a genuflection toward the Blessed Sacrament when its place of reservation is visible. In a church where the Blessed Sacrament is reserved in a special chapel or off the main axis of the building, normally you should bow toward the altar when you enter your pew, because the Eucharistic table is the principal sign of Christ's presence in the church building. If you have ever participated in the liturgy of Dedication of a Church and Altar, there is no mistaking the altar's significance: it is first slathered with chrism and then adorned with a brazier billowing clouds of incense that fill the whole church as a sign of prayer and presence!

THANK YOU VERY MUCH!

Thank you very much to the following, Grace Andrade, Ellen Gunselman, Norma Torres, Brenda Maravilla, Maryann Datoc, Ami Vela, Lara Hansen, Gloria Tan, who worked so tirelessly to make the beautiful corsages for Mother's Day last Sunday.

Durante este tiempo de Pascua las lecturas nos han llevado por la experiencia de la Iglesia en sus primeros días. Hemos saboreado el entusiasmo y el celo de los primeros cristianos. Ahora, con ellos, escuchamos las palabras de san Pedro, que nos recuerda que cuando la gente note que somos pueblo de esperanza, debemos estar preparados para explicar por qué, lo cual nos presenta un reto. ¿Será que otros sí notan que somos pueblo de esperanza? En un mundo marcado por el cinismo y la desesperanza, ¿nos destacamos por ser personas que ofrecen esperanza y confianza a los otros? En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús promete que cuando deje esta tierra no nos dejará huérfanos. Hoy promete enviar al Consolador, el Espíritu de la verdad que siempre permanecerá con nosotros. Reconozcamos la presencia del Espíritu Santo y pidamos al Espíritu que nos haga pueblo de esperanza.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En Uruguay se celebra la fiesta patronal más grande durante el mes de junio. Celebran a san Cono, un santo italiano del siglo doce. En el siglo diecinueve los inmigrantes italianos que vivían en Uruguay deseaban tener una capilla para honrar la memoria de este santo, oriundo de la provincia de Salerno, Italia. En Junio de 1885, las campanas de una modesta capilla anunciaron el recibimiento de una imagen de san Cono que llegó en procesión. Desde entonces esta costumbre italiana se fue haciendo parte integral de la devoción cristiana en Uruguay. Cono fue el hijo único de una pareja anciana que vivía en la ciudad de Teggiano, Salerno. Según la leyenda, una noche mientras dormían, esta pareja sonó un cono de luz que brotaba de la madre. Al nacer el niño decidieron llamarlo Cono. Desde muy niño, Cono mostró un afán por las cosas de Dios y a los dieciséis años ingresó a un monasterio benedictino siguiendo el consejo de una voz interior que lo invitaba a consagrarse al Señor. A los dieciocho, su monasterio se llenó de luz. Y una voz anuncio su muerte, y al día siguiente falleció.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED
We are in need of volunteer gardeners to work in our Mission Cemetery once a week. Please see or talk to Fr. Francis or call the office at 415.621.8203.

DIVORCE SUPPORT GROUP
Are you dealing with or challenged by the end of a marriage? Our archdiocese has a special group for all who have endured the pain of separation and divorce. We recognize that through their vulnerability and patient endurance, they bear witness to Christ and his redeeming grace. “May the church be the place of God’s mercy and love, where everyone can feel welcomed, loved, forgiven and encouraged to live according to the Gospel” – Pope Francis. “The Church is definitely against divorce, and divorced people are strongly against it as well, but the Church isn’t against divorced people”– Father Al Grosskopf, S.J. The Catholic Divorce Ministry can answer questions and offer help. The support group meets on the first and third Wednesday each month at 7:30pm at the Parish Center, St. Stephen Church, located at: O’Reilly Center, 451 Eucalyptus Drive, San Francisco. Please contact Fr. Al Grosskopf, S.J. for more information at 415.422.6698 or grosskopf@usfca.edu

ACT OF CONSECRATION TO THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY
O Most Blessed Virgin Mary, when you appeared in Fatima one hundred years ago, you desired that the Church should take refuge in your Immaculate Heart as a means that leads to Jesus, who is the Way to the Father.

Heeding your call, we entrust ourselves, our families, and our Archdiocese to the care and protection of your Immaculate Heart. As we prepare ourselves, through humble expressions of devotion, for the Consecration of the Archdiocese to your Immaculate Heart, inspire in us the longing to know love, and follow your beloved Son, Jesus Christ.

We ask that you help us imitate your spirit of generosity in doing God's will and your example of serving others selflessly, so that, having found God's abundant grace here on earth, we may one day be led to the everlasting joys of Heaven.

ACTO DE CONSAGRACIÓN AL CORAZÓN DE LA INMACULADA DE MARIA
Oh Virgen Santísima, cuando aparecisteis en Fátima hace cien años, deseabas que tu Iglesia se refugiará en tu Inmaculado Corazón como un medio para conducirnos a Jesús quien es el camino hacia el Padre. Respondiendo a tu llamada, nos entregamos a ti, nuestras familias, y nuestra Arquidiócesis al cuidado y protección de tu Inmaculada Corazón.

Al prepararnos con humildes expresiones de devoción para Consagrar nuestra Arquidiócesis a tu Inmaculada Corazón, inspira en nosotros el deseo del conocimiento de amar y seguir a tu hijo amado, Jesús Cristo.

Te pedimos nos ayudes a imitar tu espíritu de generosidad cumpliendo la voluntad de Dios y seguir tu ejemplo de servicio a los demás desinteresadamente, para que encontrando la abundante Gracia de Dios aquí en la tierra un día podamos ser llevados al gozo eterno en el Cielo.

THE MONTH OF MAY
It is traditional to give special honor to Mary the Mother of God in the month of May. Scripture reminds us that her son described her as the one who most especially heard the word of God and put it into practice. Her life was a ‘yes’ to the will of God. As we honor her this month through flowers in front of her statue or pictures in our homes and through special prayers, let us ask her to help us follow her example. May we continue to grow in the ability to hear the word of God and put it into practice in our lives.

EL MES DE MAYO
Es una tradición honrar especialmente en el mes a María Madre de Dios. Las Escrituras nos recuerdan que su hijo la describe como quien más escuchó la palabra de Dios y la puso en práctica. Su vida fue un ‘sí’ a la voluntad de Dios. Al honrarla con flores en el frente de su estatua o fotos en nuestros hogares y a través de oraciones especiales, let us ask her to help us follow her example. May we continue to grow in the ability to hear the word of God and practice it in our lives.

NATURAL FAMILY PLANNING
Many couples may report a deeper respect for their spouse and a strengthening of their marriage by practicing NFP. A new 2 class course starts on Saturdays June 17, July 15 at 2:00pm at St. Dominic’s Church, 2390 Bush Street, San Francisco. For more information registration at www.live-the-love.org. MISSION STATEMENT
We of Mission Dolores Basilica Parish, as part of the Catholic Church in the Archdiocese of San Francisco, pledge ourselves to be a light shining in the darkness through the love that we share in the name of Christ, and through the power and guidance of the Holy Spirit. We pledge to celebrate the rich ethnic and cultural diversity of our parish community, to grow spiritually by giving loving service to those in need, to build community through liturgy, hospitality and ecumenism, as well as through social and cultural events, and to promote social justice in our neighborhood and city. We encourage the members of Mission Dolores to enrich themselves by participating in the liturgies, devotions and other activities of the parish, by sharing their faith with others, and by living their daily lives according to the teachings of Jesus Christ.

DECLARACIÓN DE PRINCIPIOS
Nosotros, miembros de la Parroquia de Misión Dolores, como parte de la Iglesia Católica en la Arquidiócesis de San Francisco, nos comprometemos a ser luz de esperanza que ilumine en la oscuridad, a través del amor que compartimos en el nombre de Cristo, y a través del poder y la guía del Espíritu Santo. Nos comprometemos a celebrar la rica diversidad étnica y cultural de nuestra comunidad parroquial, a crecer espiritualmente dando servicios de caridad a todos aquellos en necesidades, a crear comunidad a través de la liturgia, hospitalidad y ecumenismo, al igual que mediante de eventos sociales y culturales, y a promover la justicia social en nuestro vecindario y nuestra ciudad. Alentamos a los miembros de Misión Dolores a enriquecerse participando en las liturgias, devociones y otras actividades de la parroquia, compartiendo su fe con otros, y viviendo de acuerdo a las enseñanzas de Jesucristo.
