The first reading today, from the book of Wisdom, makes its point over and over, at least five times in five verses! God is mighty, but lenient to all. God's power is shown in kindness and clemency, not in harshness and condemnation, and those who govern God's people must govern in the same way, with kindness. This loving kindness and gentleness is not contrary to God's might, but is a direct result of God's primacy over all. Who are we, then, to judge what is in the hearts of our fellow Christians and all people, when God commands justice with love and clemency. Likewise, the Holy Spirit makes up for our ignorance of what we need, speaking in a language we do not yet understand. But God knows our needs before we do, understands the intercessions of the Spirit, and helps us in our weakness. This is our hope: God's mercy, power, and love.

For centuries, the only Eucharistic Prayer we heard as Western Catholics was the old Roman Canon, usually recited in a low voice by the priest, in Latin. By the 1940s, many Catholics were learning to follow along with the actions of the priest by means of a bilingual missal, with Latin on one side and English on the other. Drawings of the priest's position at the altar, moving from one side to the other, or bowing or standing with uplifted hands at the center, helped the readers stay on track. The Roman Canon is a long prayer, and since it was done every day for every occasion, priests had a way of galloping through it. Even though long, its structure is fairly simple, with the consecration and sacrifice clear. The Roman Canon is a long prayer, and since it was done every day for every occasion, priests had a way of galloping through it. Even though long, its structure is fairly simple, with the consecration and sacrifice clearly marked out. Sadly, this surviving prayer had triumphed over many treasures of our tradition that emphasized other dimensions of Eucharist. The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy in 1963 did not call directly for new Eucharistic Prayers, but that direction was inevitable. Discussion began almost immediately, and by 1967 the Vatican approved three new Eucharistic Prayers. In 1974, the Congregation for Worship unveiled the experiment of two Eucharistic Prayers for Masses of Reconciliation, and three for Masses with Children. At last, a period creativity and enrichment had begun.

NET Ministries challenges young Catholics to love Christ and embrace the life of the Church. Every August, 175 Catholics aged 18-28 devote nine months to serving with the National Evangelization Teams (NET). Divided into 16 teams, they travel across the U.S. to share the Gospel with young people and their families. Since 1981, NET teams have led over 30,000 retreats and ministered to more than 1.8 million young Catholics. NET Ministries fulfills its mission by proclaiming this Gospel of Christ through a personal witness of faith, inviting young people to live for Christ, forming young people in Christian character; and equipping youth workers and young adults with the ministry skills needed to evangelization. NET Ministries is endorsed for youth retreats by the archdiocesan Office of Faith Formation. Parishes or deaneries may want to join together to bring the group up from Southern California. Available dates are March 8, 13 and 14. For more information or additional possible dates, contact Cord Dorsey at 651.450.6833 ext. 158 or CordD@netusa.org or Sr. Celeste Arbuckle at 415.614.5650 or oreym@sfarchdiocese.org.
