Power struggles occur on every level of society, from the world stage to relationships at work, to our own homes. We struggle for position in the hierarchy of power: Who has power over whom? How do they wield it? What is the source of that power? What is the healthy response? In this Sunday's Gospel reading the Pharisees engage Jesus in a power struggle over whether Jews should show tribute to Caesar by paying taxes. Jesus' response puts this and every struggle for power into perspective. In harmony with the words of Isaiah and Paul, Jesus teaches us that God is the ultimate source of all power - the power of earthly rulers, the Pharisees, Jesus, the Church, and the power within ourselves.

REFLECTIONS
In today's Gospel Jesus and the religious in Jerusalem continue their tense exchange of questions and challenges. At this point the disciples of the Pharisees, together with the Herodians, try to entrap Jesus by their question about the payment of taxes. Matthew sets up a partnership between the Pharisees and the Herodians were supporters of Herod Antipas, a Jewish political leader who collaborated with the Romans. Such collaboration would have required a compromised observance of the Mosaic Law. The Pharisees on the other hand, taught scrupulous observance of the Mosaic Law and opposed Roman occupation. Herodians favored the payment of taxes; the Pharisees opposed it. The Herodians and the Pharisees approach Jesus, asking that he take sides in their dispute. If Jesus answers with the Pharisees, he shows himself to be an enemy of Rome. If he answers with the Herodians, he offends popular Jewish religious sensibilities. Jesus' response to this attempt to trap him exposes the guile of his questioners. From his first words to them, Jesus shows that he is very aware of what they are trying to do. He asks to see a Roman coin, which is readily provided to him. It may have come from the hand of a Herodian, but the Pharisees show themselves to be quite willing to accept this compromise. Jesus has already exposed the Pharisees as hypocrites. Jesus takes his response one step further. He asks that his questioners examine the coin. Agreeing that it is Caesar's image on the coin. Jesus tells them that it must belong to Caesar. Avoiding the question of lawfulness altogether, Jesus answers their question with simple logic. Then, going further still, Jesus tells them that their obligation is to pay to God that which belongs to God. Jesus' response to the Herodians and Pharisees suggests the ethic that Christians ought to adopt. It reminds us of the importance of keeping things in their proper perspective. Do we attach ourselves to worldly things at the expense of the love and honor that we owe to God?

CAPPELLA SF CONCERT – SUNDAY - BASILICA

OCTOBER 29TH - 5:00PM

This concert features choral music from its early beginning in the Western world. Choral music “is the root of our classical tradition. “The melody of Hildegard with only possibly an occasional drone or organum (parallel fourths) then developed by Machaut swung in parts first. Machaut shows this first glimpse of the development of polyphony. The Isaac/Praetorius/Bach piece is a great example of how melodies from the early choral tradition passed through many composers. Norman is an example of the great Swedish choral tradition. He was kappellmeister of the Swedish Opera in the second half of the 19th century. His music is a great example of the High Romantic Tradition and the Swedish poet speaks about the turmoil of the earth. Of course, Cappella SF’s concerts have a slant towards the contemporary because in addition to our mission of music from all time periods, support today of our choral offerings is also paramount. After all “the best music has yet to be written.

The Month of the Holy Rosary

The rosary was given to St. Dominic, founder of the order of Preachers. St. Dominic used the rosary to teach uneducated people who could not read, in a manner similar to bible stories portrayed in stained glass windows. In the 15th century when the Turkish navy attacked Italy at Lapanto, the towns people gathered at the shore and prayed the rosary for their deliverance and the Turkish navy was defeated. That is when the feast of the Holy Rosary was added to our calendar. Please pray the Rosary for your needs, parish needs, and the needs of the Holy Father.

El Mes del Santo Rosario

El rosario fue entregado a Santo Domingo, fundador de la Orden de los Predicadores. Santo Domingo usó el rosario para enseñar a personas sin educación que no sabían leer, de una manera similar a las historias bíblicas retratadas en vidrieras de colores. En el siglo XV, cuando la marina de guerra turca atacó a Italia en Lapanto y los pueblos se reunieron en la orilla y rezó el rosario para su liberación y la marina de guerra turca fue derrotada que es cuando la fiesta del Santo Rosario se añadió a nuestro calendario. Por favor oren el Rosario para sus necesidades, necesidades de la parroquia y las necesidades del Santo Padre.

Second Collection Announcement

As this week finally comes to a close we are hearing the good news that progress is being made in controlling the wildfires. It’s hard to grasp that only a week ago today all was well. Archbishop Cordileone is asking that all parishes take up a Fire Collection for the Diocese of Santa Rosa on the weekend of October 28-29, and encourages the faithful to be especially generous because the need is so great. In addition to whatever money is collected from the parishes, the Archdiocese will withdraw money from a designated fund to supplement substantially the money collected from the parishes. The social service arms of the Church are also active in the area and could use your help. Catholic Charities and St. Vincent de Paul are feeding thousands, providing emergency housing and clothing, helping with insurance claims, and much more.

World Mission Sunday - October 22, 2017

Your generosity on World Mission Sunday appoints the work of priests, religious and lay leaders in the Missions who share our faith with those in need. Mission is at the heart of our faith. Live your faith through your gift in today’s collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.
