Reflections

This Sunday's Gospel continues last week's focus on John the Baptist and his role in preparing the way for Christ. Recall that last week's reading described John's appearance in the desert and established his connection with the prophetic tradition of Israel. If we were to read Luke's Gospel continuously, we would learn about John the Baptist challenging the crowds who came to him and calling upon them to show evidence of their repentance. John tells his listeners that they cannot rely on their lineage as Israelites because children of Abraham can be raised up from stones. Repentance, rather, must be observable in one's actions. Here, Luke is continuing to set up two important themes of his Gospel message: the Christian faith is expressed in one's actions, and the call to salvation is extended to everyone, Jews and Gentiles.

In today's Gospel reading, the crowds ask John the Baptist for specifics. What evidence of repentance is required? John replies by naming concrete actions: crowds should share their food and cloaks; tax collectors should be just; soldiers should act fairly. The concern for justice is a hallmark of Luke's Gospel. When the crowd begins to wonder if John the Baptist might be the Messiah, John interprets his baptism and makes it clear that his ministry is in preparation for the Messiah. John the Baptist knows his place and role in God's plan of salvation. By encouraging the crowd to act similarly in accordance with their stations in life, John's teaching suggests that each person has a role to play in God's salvation. It is the great mystery of our salvation that God permits and even asks for human cooperation in his divine plans.

The third Sunday of Advent is also called Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete is a Latin word that means “rejoice.” This name is taken from the entrance antiphon for Sunday's Mass, which is also echoed in today's second reading from the Paul's letter to the Philippians. Some people mark this Sunday by lighting a pink candle instead of a purple one on their Advent wreath. It is a reminder that the Advent season is a season of joy because our salvation is already at hand.

Reflexxiones

El Evangelio de este domingo continúa el enfoque de la lectura de la semana pasada la aparición de Juan en el desierto y estableció su conexión con la tradición profética de Israel. Si leíramos continuamente el Evangelio de Lucas, aprenderíamos acerca de que Juan el Bautista desafía a las multitudes que se acercaban a él y les pedía que mostraran evidencia de su arrepentimiento. Juan les dice a sus oyentes que no pueden confiar en su linaje como israelitas porque los hijos de Abraham pueden ser levantados de las piedras. El arrepentimiento, más bien, debe ser observable en las acciones de uno. Aquí, Lucas continúa estableciendo dos temas importantes de su mensaje del Evangelio: la fe cristiana se expresa en las acciones de uno y el llamado a la salvación se extiende a todos, judíos y gentiles.

En la lectura del Evangelio de hoy, las multitudes le piden detalles a Juan el Bautista. ¿Qué evidencia de arrepentimiento se requiere? John responde nombrando acciones concretas: las multitudes deben compartir su comida y sus capas; los recaudadores de impuestos deben ser justos; Los soldados deben actuar de manera justa. La preocupación por la justicia es un sello del Evangelio de Lucas. Cuando la jente se comienza a preguntarse si Juan el Bautista podría ser el Mesías, Juan interpreta su bautismo y deja en claro que su ministerio está en preparación para el Mesías. Juan el Bautista conoce su lugar y papel en el plan de salvación de Dios. Es el gran misterio de nuestra salvación que Dios permite e incluso pide la cooperación humana en sus planes divinos.

El tercer domingo de Adviento también se llama Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete es una palabra latina que significa "regocijarse". Este nombre se toma de la antífona de entrada para la misa del domingo, que también se repite en la segunda lectura de hoy de la carta de Pablo a los filipenses. Algunas personas celebran este domingo encendiendo una vela rosada en lugar de una púrpura en su corona de Adviento. Es un recordatorio de que la temporada de Adviento es una época de alegría porque nuestra salvación ya está cerca.

PASTOR’S CHRISTMAS WISH AND WISH-LIST

As Christmas is getting closer, I wanted to ask you "What are on your lists?" I am sure that you have shopping lists, to-do lists, and wish lists. I hope that you will also include on your numerous list a time for God in prayer, especially at this time of year. We have to take the time to ponder and pray over the wonderful gifts God has given us on the first Christmas and every day of our lives. We pray that we will be moved to be better stewards, giving back generously in gratitude for all that God has given us.

My wish list this Christmas will be:

a) Pay off the new piano we bought. We still need $25,000. I hope that you will continue to give either from yourself or in memory of your loved ones.

c) Rose plants to be put in the Old Mission cemetery garden for the restoration project. (30 plants @ $25/ea)

On behalf of the clergy and parish staff, I wish all of you a happy and holy Christmas and a New Year filled with God’s blessings!
