REFLECTION

The Reflection liturgical feast of the Baptism of the Lord concludes the Church’s celebration of Christmas. It helps to remind us that Jesus was born to be our Savior. His baptism marks the beginning of his public ministry which culminates in his paschal sacrifice, his death and resurrection. Jesus was born to die. He came into the world to offer himself in a perfect sacrifice to his heavenly Father for the salvation of the whole world.

Jesus was baptized in the Jordan by John not because the Lord was sinful but because he wished to join himself to sinful humanity. It is also a sign of his self-emptying, ultimately achieved in his suffering and death on the cross. This gesture of self-emptying is made by Jesus and immediately afterwards the Spirit descended upon him. The Spirit who had hovered over the waters of the first creation descends on the Christ as a prelude of the new creation and the Father reveals Jesus as his beloved Son.

Baptism makes us a new creation. By our baptism, we are incorporated into Christ and become adopted children of God. St. Gregory Nazianzus said, “Let us be buried with Christ by Baptism to rise with him; let us go down with him to be raised with him; and let us rise with him to be glorified with him.” St. Hilary said, “Everything that happened to Christ lets us know that, after the bath of water, the Holy Spirit swoops down upon us from high heaven and that, adopted by the Father’s voice, we become sons of God.”

We are joined as brothers and sisters of Jesus as part of God’s family and we share his destiny. Baptism begins our journey up to Jerusalem with Christ to share in his Paschal Mystery. The journey will culminate for us, as it did for Jesus, with death and resurrection. But the Christian life is a constant, relentless journey with Christ up to Jerusalem.

The church, our place of worship, is our Jerusalem. Our gathering every Sunday is the enduring characteristics of the sons and daughters of God. The Eucharist is our paschal sacrifice, our sacrament of sharing in the death and resurrection of Christ.

We become children of the light called to spread the Good News of salvation by our actions of humility living in justice, love and peace of the kingdom of God.

A Blessing for our Families for the New Year

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.
O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
-St. Francis of Assisi

PASTOR’S CHRISTMAS WISH AND WISH-LIST

As Christmas is getting closer, I wanted to ask you "What are on your lists?" I am sure that you have shopping lists, to-do lists, and wish lists. I hope that you will also include on your numerous list a time for God in prayer, especially at this time of year. We have to take the time to ponder and pray over the wonderful gifts God has given us on the first Christmas and every day of our lives. We pray that we will be moved to be better stewards, giving back generously in gratitude for all that God has given us.

My wish list this Christmas will be:
a) Pay off the new piano we bought. We still need $5,000. I hope that you will continue to give either from yourself or in memory of your loved ones.
b) A procesional cross to be used in our liturgical celebrations in the Old Mission Church. The cost is $690.37.
c) Rose plants to be put in the Old Mission cemetery garden for the restoration project. (30 plants @ $25/ea)
