THE CALL
God has a personal plan for everyone.
When He thought of you, He assigned you a special mission. And you will be happy in this life, only if you fulfill your special task. When people ask: "Why did I come to this world? What am I doing here?", then that person discovers the meaning of their life.

Sisters and brothers:
1. This happened to St. Peter, as St. Luke tells us in the Gospel. While they were fishing in the lake, Jesus said: "Simon, son of John, you will be a fisher of men." Peter took Him seriously, and it was there that he began his vocation as an apostle.

What does God expect from you? From all eternity, He has called you by your name. The Lord knows you and loves you personally. The Lord is knocking at the door of your heart, let Him come in, and be generous in doing whatever He wants.

The great Spanish guitarist, Narciso Yepes, remembers God's call: "Suddenly I heard Him inside of me. Perhaps He called me on other occasions, but I never heard Him. However, that day I had the "door open" so God could enter. Not only was He heard, but entered completely - to be in my life forever."

2. In Peter's life we can discover three attitudes that we should follow:

First, Peter was a man capable of trusting Jesus, even when he was told to do absurd things, such as casting the nets into the sea, even after having worked all night. His answer was: "in your Name I will throw the nets", is a reflection of his soul - that blindly trusted in the Lord.

Secondly, Peter examined himself and quickly reached a simple conclusion, yet a difficult one to accept and to confess: "I am a sinner," and that is why he was saved.

Thirdly, Peter began to live for others. He received from Jesus in that moment, the direction and vocation of his life: to be for others, to live for mankind, to suffer for them and to express joy for them.

When we have the humble attitude of Peter, then we will be able to understand others and never judge them. We will learn to accept ourselves, to have patience with our limitations, to tolerate ourselves, and not to be shocked when we see ourselves as small and petty.

3. The miracle of the miraculous catch also teaches us that when things are done in the name of Jesus, then there is always a great outcome. The lake seemed empty, yet it was full of fish. Christ is not served only by angels or saints to continue His work; He looks for people who are simple, weak, sinful, and ready to follow Him with generosity.

Let us ask Jesus to dispel all our doubts and fears, to help us overcome all our temptations. From the Tabernacle, Jesus is our most sympathetic friend, the most devoted lover. Don't forget Him, for today Jesus calls you by your name. Always say: "Here I am Lord!"
