ARE YOU WORTH WHAT YOU THINK YOU ARE?

Our society is producing a very egotistic type of individual, lacking in solidarity, caught up in materialism, with a small heart and narrow vision, unable to love with true generosity.

It's so hard to find someone willing to serve for nothing! Pride is like smoke in one's eyes, poisoning human relationships.

Dear brothers and sisters, in his lesson today Christ is warning us to purify our attitudes. There is one sure way to lose people's esteem and respect: conceit.

1. Conceit makes people think more of themselves than they should, comparing themselves to others and thinking they are more intelligent, stronger, more attractive than everyone else. They look for seats of honor, demand preferential treatment, make themselves heard, always wanting to have the last word. They speak a lot about themselves, announcing their own accomplishments, trying to be the center of the group, at times even humiliating those who stand out in order to make sure they don't overshadow them.

2. Christ sees the Pharisees always looking for seats of honor. We must look for the precise position that corresponds to us. Owing to our condition as creatures our place will always be the last; let us let God raise us up to the position that he wants. He may tell us "Rise higher." Loving modesty and humility has its advantages. What does it mean to "rise higher"? Saint Paul says that God took us up to Heaven because we were poor. That is what "rising higher" means, the glorifying of the poor.

3. André Frosard, after his conversion, made the resolution always to seek out the last place. When he would reach one level in life, he always realized that he could push himself more. That is why one day, when he reached the last place, he found out it was already filled - Christ was there. At that moment he understood two things: first, Christ's love exceeds us. Second, that he had been seeking the last place for love of self and not for love of Christ, and he discovered that he had already been beaten by the person for whom he should have done it all. Teresa of Jesus was so right! "Humility means walking in the truth," no more, no less. To know who one is and to know how to fight to be what God hopes we will be.

In today's liturgy we find Christ as a meek and humble lamb. This is the Christ we are all looking for. Christ in his Passion, suffering humiliation, betrayal, abandonment. How do we react when people insult us and humiliate us? He was humble, accepting in silence. He loved and learned. It is in true, free and unconditional love that we learn about the love of God. Brothers and sisters, let us be like children who after receiving so many gifts freely from their parents know that they can never pay them back enough. Let us be like those parents who when they give all their love cannot hope to be repaid. Amen.
