Sisters and brothers,

Today's readings are a wake-up call to our conscience, so we learn to place temporal goods in their proper place and use them intelligently. There are people who make material wealth the main motive behind their activities and even their life; that's all they think about. They make money into an idol on whose altar they sacrifice their values, their family, their own health.

1. We find two attitudes. In the world, the prudent man is the one who stores up money. Jesus calls this attitude "serving money," while it would be more prudent for us to put it to good use. That is why he stunningly declares, "You cannot serve God and money." Miserly people are always unhappy, perpetual hostages that take pleasure neither in the world nor in God. They isolate themselves and don't have feelings, not even for those of their own flesh who see them as people only out for their own gain.

2. In life we will always need to choose between opposing values, but we can only choose the best. And choosing one thing means renouncing its opposite. If on the one hand we have God's commandments and on the other we have material things, there can be no doubt: only God is worth risking everything for. It's true that that's where our difficulties begin, because our lord and master is very demanding. He asks us to renounce everything to serve him alone; and our heart cannot be divided. It must belong to God fully and at all times.

3. This Gospel passage invites us to be faithful to God. We cannot be slaves of wealth; rather we must learn to use it responsibly. Material goods will be useful only if we use them to help our neighbors in greatest need. This is the only way we can make money a means of communion with other people, instead of a means of discrimination.

Money is usually a bad boss, but we can make it a good servant. That is the secret of good administrators. Christians are poor at heart and can't be at peace blindly enjoying earthly goods while there are needy people at hand. Our secret is living the law of love.

True charity doesn't mean just giving alms to those who ask at the doors of the church, nor buying a ticket for a benefit dinner. It has to go further, for example, being honest in paying taxes, creating new jobs, being more generous with my employee's salaries, in other words, making our money benefit the needy. And in the end we will always come out ahead, because in each of them we will find a friend in this life as well as many intercessors in Heaven.
